

Index

A

- academics, and quality topics, xxviii–xxix, xxx
- acceptance criteria, in testing, 335–336
- acceptance test, 316
- activities and tasks in
 - business evaluation, 166–167
 - change management, 202
 - deployment, 212
 - enterprise architecture, 205
 - implementation, 193, 194
 - interface modeling, 182, 183
 - persistence design, 190
 - process configuration, 174
 - project management, 170, 171
 - prototyping, 198, 199
 - quality assurance, 225
 - quality control, 227, 228
 - quality management, 220, 222
 - requirements modeling, 177, 178
 - reuse, 218
 - system architecture, 209
 - system design, 186
 - training, 215
- activity diagrams, as deliverable, 177–178
- activity element in a process, defined, 159
- Adams, Scott, 121
- administrative procedures, required in testing, 335
- adoption, of a software process. See deployment
- Adult ego state, 109, 115. See also ego states
- aesthetics, quality assurance checks, 44–45
- agendas, antidote for Meetingitis, 121
- Ahlgrin, M., 268
- Alexander, Christopher, 4–5
- analysts. See business analyst; quality analyst
- analyzing results, 338
- analyzing risks in testing, 319–321
- anti-virus software, 318
- architects. See enterprise architect; system architect
- architecture
 - in background space, 32
 - testing, 313–314
- artificial crisis, creating, 235
- audits
 - compared to inspections and reviews, 127
 - described, 127–128
 - documentation of results, 128
 - internal and external, 127
 - and malleability, 123
 - written objectives required, 128

automated testing, 307, 309–311
awkward silence, in workshops, 132

B

background space. See also model of the background space; team organization, roles in background space
defined, 32–33
organizing the roles, 93, 94
baking example creating a process-component, 161, 162 measuring, 277, 278–279
process, 20 barber, 10
Beizer, Boris, 303
Berne, E., 116 best-fit approach, creating a homogeneous team, 107–109 black box testing, 306–308
Boehm, Barry, 239, 284
Booch, G., 56 boundary value testing, 307, 313 budgets in large projects, 68
as quality pressure, 12
for software maintenance, 12 bugs. See software, incidents bureaucratic processes, and malleability, 52
business analyst attributes of, 85 documentation abilities, 85 and quality topics, xxviii–xxix as requirements modeler, 86 responsibilities, 85
role in implementation, 193
interface modeling, 182
requirements modeling, 177
reuse, 218
role on team, 85 business case, as deliverable, 166, 167 business evaluation process-component. See process-component for, business evaluation business sponsor. See sponsor

C

Capability Maturity Model. See also process maturity applying, 141–142 impact on quality and productivity, 147 levels, 139–140 process areas, 140 process standards, 134–135 role in processes, 138–140 CASE tools, keeping implementations separate, 251–252
Catalysis, as off-the-shelf software, 23
CDs, as communication mechanism, 105 change-control mechanism, for test cases, 334 change management process-component. See process-component for, change management checklists
creating, 128
described, 128–129
dynamicity, 128–129 paper or electronic, 128 should be graded, 128 used in walkthroughs, 123–124
Child ego state. See ego states class attributes and operations, 156
class testing, vs. use case testing, 327 classes, measuring size and complexity, 287 closed teams, 106–107, 116 closed testing. See black box testing
CMM. See Capability Maturity Model
CMM Integration production suite
(CMMi), 138–139
COCOMO model, 284 code (executable), as deliverable, 194 code quality, 16
coder. See programmer

- coffee break, value in workshops, 132
 - commercial off the shelf. See off-the-shelf software
 - common roles, 95
 - communication
 - facilitated by UML, 34
 - facilitating by models, 28
 - facilitating through standards, 137
 - in outsourcing projects, 61
 - in quality environment, 104–105
 - responsible for project failures, 17
 - suggested mechanisms, 104–105
 - and team structure, 110
 - competence, individual, and best-fit, 109
 - component test, 315
 - components, measuring size and complexity, 287
 - components, reusable. See reusability
 - conferences
 - IT Project Management conference, 17
 - OOPSLA 95, 35
 - OOPSLA 96, 4, 34, 81
 - TOOLS 2000, 28
 - UML 2001, xxix
 - confusion, value of, 132
 - Constantine, Larry, 54, 55, 79, 81
 - construction, quality of, 41
 - context diagram, display of, 105
 - conversion plan, as deliverable, 190
 - conversion projects, 58, 62, 309
 - cooking process, sample. See baking example
 - copyrights. See legal issues
 - corporate head office, and standards, 137
 - costs. See budgets
 - COTS. See off-the-shelf software
 - Cowboy Programming game, 119–120
 - creativity, and Cowboy Programming, 120
 - creep factor. See scope creep
 - CRMS. See Customer Relationship Management System
 - Crystal, as off-the-shelf software, 23
 - cumbersome processes, and malleability, 52
 - Customer Relationship Management System, 60
 - cyclic approach to testing, 323
- D
- data modeler, 91
 - data, probabilities of error in, 340
 - data, quality, 15
 - data warehousing projects
 - UML, 58, 62
 - white box testing, 309
 - database design, as deliverable, 190
 - database designer, role in persistence design, 190
 - database, for test results, 338
 - database manager
 - interaction with data modeler, 95
 - role in persistence design, 190
 - role on team, 95
 - testing role, 321
 - databases. See also data modeler and measurements, 269
 - model in data warehouse / conversion projects, 62
 - standards, 135
 - and test plan, 319
 - for test results, 319
 - Deadline game, 121–122
 - deadlines, missed, 12
 - deliverables
 - business evaluation, 167
 - change management, 202, 203
 - defined, 160
 - deployment, 212
 - enterprise architecture, 206
 - implementation, 194
 - interface modeling, 182, 183
 - persistence design, 190
 - of planning. See planning deliverables
 - process configuration, 175
 - project management, 170
 - prototyping, 198
 - quality assurance, 225, 226

- deliverables (cont.)
 - quality control, 227, 228, 229
 - quality management, 220, 221
 - requirements modeling, 177–178
 - reuse, 219
 - system architecture, 209
 - system design, 187
 - training, 216
 - DeMarco, T., 267
 - deployment, 249–250, 251, 316–317
 - deployment plan, as deliverable, 212
 - deployment process-component. See
 - process-component for, deployment
 - depth of quality checking. See
 - sufficiency
 - designers. See database designer;
 - interface designer; system designer
 - developer, and quality topics, xxviii–xxix
 - development environment, 322
 - development projects, 58, 81
 - Dilbert, 121
 - dimensions of a process, 152, 250
 - director. See senior management
 - disturbances (physical), impact on
 - team. See e-factors
 - documentation
 - in test acceptance, 336
 - and UML, 42
 - dog, learning to croak, 47
 - domain expert, 88, 89, 177
 - downloads. See legal issues
 - driving conditions, 257
- E
- e-factors, 101, 102
 - educational projects, 57, 62–63
 - ego states
 - characteristics, 115
 - and games, 117
 - impact on games, 118
 - in transactional analysis, 114–115
 - elegance, of a process, 51
 - email, as communication mechanism,
 - 104
 - enactment process-component. See
 - process-component for, enactment
 - encapsulation. See object-oriented
 - end user
 - distinct from user, 87
 - helps with global issues, 88
 - importance to defining requirements, 88
 - and modeling, 28
 - and quality, 7
 - role on team, 87
 - testing role, 321
 - engineers. See process engineer
 - enhancements, as software incidents,
 - 337
 - enterprise architect, responsibility for reuse, 94
 - enterprise architecture process-component. See process-component for, enterprise architecture
 - Enterprise Resource Planning, 60
 - enterprise wide architecture, as
 - deliverable, 206
 - environment
 - development, 322
 - physical. See e-factors
 - testing, 322
 - working, and tight estimates, 275
 - equation, measuring object-oriented systems, 292
 - equivalence partitioning, 307,
 - 312–313
 - ergonomics. See usability
 - ERP. See Enterprise Resource Planning
 - errors
 - costs of correction, 25
 - introduced by fixes, 317
 - test acceptance, 336
 - estimates
 - about, 268
 - initial, techniques, 283
 - in Lucky Insurance project, 290–291,
 - 294–295
 - measurement of, 269, 270–271

- measurements and estimates,
 - compared, 268–269
 - project, 271–274
 - refining at end of iterations, 279–282
 - relating estimates to quality, 268
 - role in quality assurance, 268
 - tight, effects of, 275
- estimates and measures. See measurements
- estimating process, defined, 268
- existing applications. See legacy
- experimental projects. See pilot projects
- expert experience and knowledge,
 - reusing, 53
- experts. See domain expert
- external audits, when needed, 127
- extraneous factors. See road factors
- eXtreme Programming
 - in development projects, 58
 - and games, 120, 122
 - as off-the-shelf software, 239
 - and process-components, 232
- Eykolt, Ed, 56

F

- facilitator, in workshops, 131
- facilitators, 110
- FDD, as off-the-shelf software, 23
- Flour Mix game, 120
- flow of information. See
 - communication
- flowcharts, as a visual model, 40
- formula, measuring object-oriented systems, 292
- fountain-based SDLC, 242
- Fowler, M., 34
- function point estimation, 284–285
- functional prototype, as deliverable, 183
- functional specifications, as
 - deliverable, 177–178
- functionality, adding, 13, 120

G

- games, 117–122
- Gamma, Erich, 53

- Gang of Four, 53
- garbage collection, 316
- Gates, Bill, 13
- global issues, 88, 137
- glossary of business terms, as
 - deliverable, 178
- Go or No Go decision, 164, 316
- Goldberg, A., 84
- Graham, I., 112
- granularity, of object-oriented systems, 286
- graphical user interface. See GUI;
 - interfaces
- GUI, 56, 340. See also interfaces

H

- hardware, needed in testing, 320
- Harry Potter, 49
- hierarchical team structure, 109–111
- high-visibility projects, 65–66
- horizontal testing, 307, 311
- “how” of a process. See methodological aspects
- human factors. See sociological aspects;
 - usability

I

- ICONIX, as off-the-shelf software, 23, 239
- IIP development process
 - development plan creation, 145
 - integration plan creation, 145
 - iterations and increments, 243–249
 - project plan creation, 264
 - project plan, section, 256
- ill-fitting individuals, 109
- I’m [not] OK, You’re [not] OK. See life positions
- implementation process-component.
 - See* process-component for,
 - implementation
- implementer. See programmer
- incidents, software. See software,
 - incidents
- increments. See iterations
- India, and IT industry, 146

- information flow. See communication
 - informative events, as software incidents, 337
 - initial cycles reports, 341
 - inspections
 - described, 124–125
 - documentation of results, 124
 - by peers, 124
 - of quality models, 47
 - usability, 124–125
 - in white box testing, 308
 - integration projects, 57, 58–59
 - intellectual property. See legal issues
 - interface design, as deliverable, 183
 - interface designer, 91
 - interface modeling process-component. See process-component for, interface modeling
 - interfaces. See also GUI
 - legacy, as deliverable, 187
 - modeling and design. See process-component for, interface modeling
 - navigability of, 55–56
 - shared, social issues, 103
 - specifications, as deliverable, 182
 - system, not just GUI, 9
 - interviews, 129–130
 - intranet, 104, 138
 - IT Project Management conference, 17
 - iterations
 - creating, 253–255
 - defined, 161
 - deploying process-components, 245
 - effort per iteration, 244
 - final, 248, 262–263
 - initial, 245–246, 260–261
 - maintenance or ongoing, 249
 - major
 - described, 246–248
 - quality activities at end, 261–262
 - and sociological aspects, 280–281
 - measurements based on initial, 294
 - need for, 243
 - parallel development, 248–249
 - refining estimates after each, 279–282
 - Iterative, Incremental, Parallel. See IIP; iterations
 - iterative project management tools, 256–257
 - iterative project task plan, 255–256
- J
- Jacobson, I., 35, 151, 285
- K
- Kimball, R., 137
- L
- large projects, 67–69
 - lectures, on quality topics, xxx
 - legacy
 - applications, in integration projects, 59
 - interfaces, as deliverable, 187
 - systems, helped by modeling, 72
 - legal issues, 103, 127
 - levels of process maturity. See process maturity
 - levels, of quality process, 50
 - life positions
 - affect on teams, 116
 - defined, 116
 - impact on games, 118
 - and team structure, 116, 117
 - lifecycle, parallel development, 248–249
 - Lim, W. C., 111
 - lines of code, as software measurement, 284, 285
 - Lister, T., 267
 - LOC. See lines of code
 - Lockwood, L., 54, 55
 - logic validation, in test acceptance, 336
 - Lucky Insurance project
 - applying measurements and estimates to, 287–297
 - configuration of processes, 238
 - iterations, 243, 253–255

M

- major errors, risks of discovering late, 320
- make vs. buy, as background space issue, 33
- malleability
 - aspect of baking example, 20
 - aspect of process, 164
 - contribution to quality, 52, 144
 - defined, 51–52, 144
 - of process-components, 143–144
 - and process discipline, 263
 - and process engineer, 99
 - revealed by audit, 123
- management
 - in background space, 32
 - need for reward system for reuse, 112
 - of overall quality function, 27
 - problem and solution space, 32
 - reward system for reuse, 111
 - sociological aspects, 80
- management of quality vs. quality of management, 17–18
- managers. See database manager; project manager; quality manager; test manager
- manual testing, 306, 309–310
- Marick, Brian, 324
- maturity. See process maturity
- measurements
 - of classes, 287
 - of components, 287
 - deciding what to measure, 283
 - defined, 268
 - importance of, 297
 - in Lucky Insurance project, 287–297
 - and multipliers, 278
 - of processes, 275–282
 - of project size and type, 271–272
 - in projects. See project measurements
 - of quality models, 282–283
 - of resource distribution, 272, 273, 274
 - role in quality assurance, 268
 - of software, 284–286
 - stored in database, 269
 - of UML elements, 286–287
 - and weighting factors, 278
- medium projects, characteristics, 66–67
- Meetingitis game, 121, 131
- memory leaks, 316
- MeNtOR, as off-the-shelf software, 23, 239
- mentoring and training, 252
- metamodels
 - class attributes and operations, 156
 - creation of, 37
 - levels of, 37–38
 - to prevent modeling errors, 38
 - of a process. See process metamodel and quality, 37–38
 - for UML, 36
- methodological aspects
 - of baking example, 20
 - measurement of, 269
 - of a process, 152, 154
- methodology war, 35
- metrics. See estimates; measurements
- Meyers, Glenford J., 339
- MOBS. See model of the background space
- model of the background space, 93–94, 226. See also modeling spaces
- model of the problem space, 84, 225. See also modeling spaces
- model of the solution space, 89, 225. See also modeling spaces
- model quality, 16
- modeler, role in quality control, 227
- modelers. See data modeler
- modeling, 17, 27–29
- modeling and quality, 27–29
- modeling spaces. See also background space; problem space; solution space
- importance of separation, 71
- interdependencies, 33
- and UML diagrams, 42–44
- understanding, 29–31

- models
 - quality of, 44–45
 - testing validity, 308
 - and UML diagrams, 44
 - views of, 30
- MOPS. See model of the problem space
- MOSS. See model of the solution space
- multipliers, in measuring, 278
- N
- navigability of interfaces, 55–56
- necessity, 50–51, 142–143
- network, needed in testing, 320
- newsletters, as communication mechanism, 105
- Next Release Maybe, 120
- nontechnical management, 80–82
- notations for describing process ingredients, 158
- NRM. See Next Release Maybe
- O
- Object Management Group, 34, 37–38
- Object Oriented Programming, Systems, Languages, and Applications. See OOPSLA
- object-oriented software, is not an object, 8
- object-oriented systems
 - affect on programmers, 92
 - encapsulation, improves quality, 53
 - measuring granularity, 286
 - objects, success tied to business contexts, 84
 - parallel development, 112
 - resurgence of, 113
 - sociological aspects, 113
 - software measurements, 285–286
- objectives
 - high level, display of, 105
 - lack of, 17, 121
- off-the-shelf software, 23, 237–239
- office tools, impact on team. See e-factors
- OK position, 109. See also life positions
- Olympic trainer, 10
- OOPSLA 95, 35
- OOPSLA 96, 4, 34, 81
- OPEN Consortium, as off-the-shelf software, 23, 239
- open teams, 106, 107
- open testing. See white box testing
- operational plan, as deliverable, 212
- operational requirements, in test acceptance, 336
- operational testing, 317
- orthogonal process relationship, 21–22
- Osho, 71
- outside factors. See road factors
- outsourcing projects, 58, 61–62
- P
- package implementation projects, 57, 60–61
- parallel team organization, 102, 112–113
- Parent ego state. See ego states
- parking lot
 - antidote for Meetingitis, 121
 - in workshops, 132, 133
- partitioning testing approach, 307
- pattern libraries, as deliverable, 187
- people. See staff
- PeopleSoft, 60
- performance testing, 318
- Perry, William, 5, 26
- persistence design process-component. See process-component for, persistence design
- personalities, 126, 141. See also ego states; sociological aspects
- phone. See telephone
- physical arrangements, impact on team. See e-factors
- physical security, 318
- pilot projects, 66, 250–251
- planning deliverables
 - project organizational plan, 144
 - quality plan, 145
 - test plan, 145–146
- play acting, in workshops, 132
- pressure, working under, 122

- problem space. See also model of the problem space; team organization, roles in problem space
 - activities, 31
 - defined, 31
 - focus on functionality, 89
 - legacy applications, 31
 - organizing the roles, 84
 - prototype, impact on usability, 89
- problems, as software incidents, 337
- process
 - configuration, 237–243
 - defined, 19–20
 - deployment, 236
 - dimensions, 152–155, 250
 - elegance, 51
 - elements
 - access to, 253
 - defined, 157
 - describing ingredients, 158
 - shareability of, 253
 - enactment
 - importance of road factors, 257–260
 - practicality of, 259
 - in practice, 237
 - inherent characteristics. See malleability
 - iterations, 243
 - malleability checks, 143–144
 - maturity. See process maturity
 - metamodel. See process metamodel
 - necessity checks, 142–143
 - in practice, 236
 - process quality checks, 142
 - and quality, 17, 82–83
 - relationships, orthogonality, 21–22
 - and reusability, 111
 - rigorous, 163
 - in software context, 22–23
 - state, ascertaining current, 250
 - sufficiency checks, 143
 - timings, 164, 231
 - why measure, 276
- process-component for
 - business evaluation, 165–168
 - change management, 201–204
 - deployment, 211–214
 - enactment, 277–279
 - enterprise architecture, 204–207
 - implementation, 192–196
 - interface modeling, 181–184
 - persistence design, 188–192
 - process configuration, 172–176
 - project management, 169–172
 - prototyping, 196–200
 - quality assurance, 223–227
 - quality control, 227–231
 - quality management, 220–223
 - requirements modeling, 176–181
 - reuse, 217–220
 - system architecture, 207–211
 - system design, 185–188
 - training, 214–217
- process-components
 - in baking example, 161
 - for business evaluation, in Lucky Insurance project, 290
 - defined, 21, 160
 - for deployment, measuring, 276–277
 - for enactment, measuring, 289
 - evolution of, 236
 - measuring, 275–282
 - as process building block, 157
 - of quality process, 220
 - for requirements modeling, in Lucky Insurance project, 290
 - and software engineering process, 237
- process configuration process-component. See process-component for, process configuration
- process consultant. See process engineer
- process discipline. See process maturity
- process engineer
 - and CASE tools, 99
 - as consultant, 252
 - creation of software engineering process, 263

- process engineer (cont.)
 - malleability of quality process and, 99
 - as process mentor, 252
 - and quality topics, xxviii–xxix
 - ready-made processes, 239
 - role in enacting, 236
 - role in process configuration, 173–174
 - role on team, 99
 - software engineering process, 237
- process maturity. See also Capability Maturity Model
 - applying CMM in UML-based projects, 141–142
 - Capability Maturity Model, 138–141
 - defined level (level 3), 139–140
 - five levels, 139–140
 - identifying current state, 139
 - initial level (level 1), 139, 140
 - measured level (level 4), 140
 - measuring, 163
 - optimized level (level 5), 140
 - personal software process maturity, 141
 - and process dimensions, 141
 - repeatable level (level 2), 139, 140
- process metamodel
 - activities, 159
 - deliverables, 160
 - described, 156–157
 - importance of understanding, 232
 - iterations, 161
 - process-components, 160
 - process-components, in baking
 - example, 161–162
 - roles on team, 157–158
 - tasks, 159–160
- process-thinker, role in enacting, 236
- processes
 - didactic, contributes to Cowboy Programming game, 120
 - and malleability, 51–52
 - measurement of, 275–282
- procurement of hardware and software. See project organizational plan
- productivity
 - factor, in Lucky Insurance project, 291–294
 - increased by quality process, 25
 - increased through reuse, 53
 - nonlinearity with hours spent, 102
- program director, role on team, 96
- programmer
 - as cowboy, 119–120
 - role
 - described, 92
 - in implementation, 192
 - in quality control, 227
 - in reuse, 218
 - in system design, 186
 - on team, 92
 - as superhero, 119
- programming language
 - features, in Use It or Lose It game, 119
 - standards, 119, 135
- project brief, as deliverable, 166, 167
- project management
 - responsible for project failures, 17
 - and telecommuting, 105
 - tools, iterative, 256–257
- project management process-component. See process-component for, project management
- project manager. See also program director
 - discouraging games, 119, 120
 - estimates, 283
 - as facilitator, 110
 - latest demo, 112
 - new sign-off paradigm, 96, 242
 - project organizational plan, 144–145
 - quality topics, xxviii–xxix
 - ready-made processes, 239
 - recruiting, 107
 - responsibilities of, 95, 112
 - role in
 - business evaluation, 166
 - change management, 202
 - deployment, 211

- enacting, 236
 - enterprise architecture, 205
 - process configuration, 174
 - project management, 170
 - prototyping, 198
 - quality assurance, 224
 - requirements modeling, 177
 - reuse, 218
 - risk management, 95, 96
 - system architecture, 208
 - system design, 186
 - role, on team, 95
 - steering committee, 96
 - training in IIP approach, 252
 - project measurements, 267–268, 271–272
 - project objectives. See project organizational plan
 - project office, role in projects, 146–147
 - project organizational plan, 144–145, 170
 - project plan, separate from project organizational plan, 144
 - project sponsor. See sponsor
 - project task plan, 170, 255–256
 - project team
 - role in change management, 202
 - role in deployment, 212
 - role in enterprise architecture, 205
 - role in process configuration, 174
 - role in quality assurance, 224
 - role in training, 215
 - projects. See also UML-based projects
 - distribution of resources, 272–274
 - estimates and measures. See estimates and measures
 - failure of, 260–261
 - four team models, 106, 107
 - goals and objectives, as
 - communication mechanism, 105
 - resources, measurements, 272–274
 - roles of developers and testers, 321
 - sociology, 106–113
 - soft factors, 102
 - prophetic statements, 296
 - prototype
 - architectural, as deliverable, 198, 209
 - evolve or throw away, 93
 - functional, as deliverable, 198
 - interface, as deliverable, 198
 - problem space, impact on usability, 89
 - technical, as deliverable, 187, 190, 198
 - prototyper
 - in background space, 95
 - in problem space, 89
 - role, 198
 - in solution space, 93, 95
 - prototyping process-component. See process-component for, prototyping
 - Putnam model, 284
 - pyramid, flattening, 109–111
- ## Q
- QA. See Quality Assurance
 - QAIndia, 141
 - QC. See Quality Control
 - quality
 - activities, 260–263
 - assuring, as a distinct activity, 10–11
 - and common sense, 7
 - of construction, and UML, 41
 - defined, 4, 5, xxiv
 - of documentation, and UML, 42
 - elusive nature of, 268
 - emotional nature of, 4
 - essential ingredients of, 6
 - and estimates, 268
 - extreme, impact on productivity, 8
 - GUI design, 56
 - importance of standards. See standards
 - of management, vs. management of quality, 17–18
 - measures of, 282–283
 - and metamodels, 37–38
 - of models, syntax, semantics, and aesthetics, 44–45
 - as a moving target, 7
 - and objective effort, 7–8

- quality (cont.)
 - pressures. See quality pressures
 - priorities, 11
 - process. See quality process
 - relationship with estimates, 268
 - of specification, and UML, 40–41
 - and staff experience, 103
 - tracking, 257–263
 - and UML, 34, 38–39
 - of UML, vs. quality by UML, 35–36
 - underlying motto of, 7
 - and usability, 54–56
 - of visualization, and UML, 39–40
- quality analyst
 - check on process checks, 99
 - role in
 - inspections, 124
 - modeling spaces, 99
 - quality assurance, 224
 - quality management, 220
 - testing, 321
 - role, on team, 98
- quality assurance
 - as different from quality control, 26
 - influence on testing, 305
 - package implementation projects, 60–61
 - responsibilities, 304–305
 - of software process
 - described, 49–50
 - quality of process, 50–52
 - techniques
 - goals, 44–45
 - quality models, 45–49
 - and testing, 26–27
- quality assurance process-component.
 - See* process-component for, quality assurance
- quality comments on
 - business evaluation, 167–168
 - change management, 202–204
 - deployment, 213–214
 - enterprise architecture, 206–207
 - implementation, 194–196
 - interface modeling, 183–184
 - persistence design, 191–192
 - process configuration, 175–176
 - project management, 170–172
 - prototyping, 198–200
 - quality assurance, 226–227
 - quality control, 229–231
 - quality management, 222–223
 - requirements modeling, 179–181
 - reuse, 219–220
 - system architecture, 210–211
 - system design, 187–188
 - training, 216–217
- quality context triangle, 15
- quality control, 26, 304–305
- quality control process-component. See process-component for, quality control
- quality environment
 - communication in, 104–105
 - crucial aspect of quality process, 151
 - defined, 101
 - described, 18–19, 80
 - e-factor and quality, 101–102
 - and quality management, 80
 - and soft issues, 102–104
 - and telecommuting, 105–106
- quality game, key points, 69–70
- quality levels
 - code, 16
 - data, 15
 - described, 14–15
 - management, 17–18
 - model, 16
 - process, 17
 - quality environment, 18–19
- quality management. See also software quality
 - areas of responsibilities, 304–306
 - described, 80
 - distinct from project management, 83
 - focus of, 97
 - influence on testing, 305
 - need for independence, 97
 - nontechnical management, 80–82
 - process, 82–83
 - project management, 72, 83, 97

- quality environment, 80
- responsibilities of, 304
- and testing, 304
- quality management process-component. See process-component for, quality management
- quality manager
 - focus on soft factors, 98
 - project manager, 98
 - quality environment, 18
 - quality topics, xxviii–xxix
 - ready-made processes, 239
 - role in
 - change management, 202
 - enterprise architecture, 205
 - interface modeling, 182
 - persistence design, 190
 - project management, 170
 - prototyping, 198
 - quality assurance, 224
 - quality control, 227
 - quality management, 220
 - reuse, 218
 - system architecture, 208
 - system design, 186
 - role, on team, 97
 - steering committee, 97
 - training in IIP approach, 252
- quality models
 - aesthetics, 48–49
 - semantics, 47–48
 - syntax, 45–46
- quality plan, 145, 220
- quality pressures
 - budget, 12
 - functionality additions, 13
 - impact on quality efforts, 13–14
 - quality priorities, 11–12
 - time, 12
- quality process
 - architecture, described, 151–152
 - as aspect of quality environment, 151
 - described, 24–25
 - increase in productivity, 25
 - independence, 24
 - levels of software process maturity, 50
 - necessary, sufficient, and malleable aspects, 82
 - normal development process, 25–26
 - as part of quality software process, 163
 - as part of the quality software process, 24
 - process-component. See process-component, for individual components
 - software models, 24
 - the software process, 22–23
 - software process, 24
 - software product, 24
- quality software process. See also software process
 - of baking example, 20
 - defined, 23
 - defining process, 19–20
 - as deliverable, 175, 221, 225
 - as distinct from software process, 162–163
 - enacting, 235–237
 - malleability, 164
 - maturity, 163–164
 - orthogonal process relationship, 21–22
 - quality assurance and testing, 26–27
 - and the quality process, 24–26
 - quality process, 163
 - rigor of, 163
 - and software development, 23–24
 - and the software process, 22–23
 - timings, 164
- quality team, 97, 220
- quality techniques
 - audits, 127–128
 - checklists, 128–129
 - described, 122–123
 - inspections, 124–125
 - interviews, 129–130
 - mapping among, 122
 - quality of process and models, 123
 - reviews, 125–127

- quality techniques (cont.)
 - walkthroughs, 123–124
 - workshops, 131–133
- quality topics
 - organizing workshops, xxx
 - and team roles, xxviii–xxix
- questionnaires, for interviews, 129
- R
- random teams, 106, 107
- Rational Unified Process
 - as off-the-shelf software, 23, 239
 - and quality assurance, 10
- recording (audio). See tape recording
- recruitment, focus on best fit, 109
- regression testing, 310, 317
- released product, as deliverable, 212
- report design, and interface designer role, 91
- report designer, role on team, 91
- requirements modeling process-component. See process-component for, requirements modeling
- response, system, 318
- results validation, 336
- reusability
 - aspects of test plan, 324
 - correlation with quality, 111
 - of expert knowledge and experience, 53
 - and the increase in productivity, 53
 - and object-orientation, 52–53
 - and people, 111–112
 - reward system, 111, 112
 - social issues, 103
 - staff experience, 103
 - and standards, 53–54
 - woven into process, 111
- reusable entities, as deliverable, 219
- reusable libraries, as deliverable, 194
- reuse
 - plan, as deliverable, 187, 219
 - strategy, 209. See also project organizational plan
 - reuse process-component. See process-component for, reuse
 - reverse modeling, 67–68
 - reviews, 125–127
 - reward system, for reuse, 111, 112
 - rigorous process, 163
 - risk analysis, 319–321
 - risk management
 - importance of project manager, 95, 96
 - in testing, 319–321
 - risks (project). See project organizational plan
 - road factors
 - and accurate estimates, 283
 - defined, 257–260
 - in estimates, 275
 - importance in process enactment, 257–260
 - in initial estimates, 283
 - role element in a process, 157
 - roles in
 - business evaluation, 166
 - change management, 202
 - deployment, 211, 212
 - enterprise architecture, 205
 - implementation, 192, 193
 - interface modeling, 182
 - persistence design, 190
 - process configuration, 173–174
 - project management, 170
 - prototyping, 198
 - quality assurance, 224
 - quality control, 227
 - quality management, 220
 - requirements modeling, 177
 - reuse, 218
 - system architecture, 208
 - system design, 186
 - training, 215
 - roles, swapping for testing, 321
 - Rowling, J. K., 49
 - royalties. See legal issues
 - Rubin, K., 84
 - rules of thumb, for estimates and metrics, 296

S

- SAP, 60
- scalability, 63–64, 318
- scale of projects and application of UML, 64–65
- schedules, affect of missed deadlines, 12
- scope creep, 13, 120
- scope of testing, 319–321
- SDLC, types of, 241–242
- security testing, 318
- semantics, quality assurance checks, 44–45
- senior management
 - games, 118
 - initial estimates, 283
 - initial iteration, 260
 - quality topics, xxviii–xxix
 - steering committee, 96
 - support for object-oriented techniques, 103
 - testing results, 341
 - time pressure, 12
- shareability, of process elements, 253
- short-term roles, 109
- Siebel, 60
- sitting arrangements, impact on team.
 - See* e-factors
- slices, vertical and horizontal, 325
- slicing testing approach, 307
- small projects, characteristics, 65–67
- sociological aspects
 - of baking example, 20
 - during major iteration, 280–281
 - measuring, 271–272
 - of object-oriented systems, 113
 - of a process, 153, 155
 - and quality, 81
 - and reviews, 126
 - of white box testing, 309
- soft factors
 - legal issues, 103
 - often neglected, 147
 - and parallel team organization, 102
 - and reusability, 103
 - senior management support, 103
 - specific to UML-based projects, 102
 - staff experience, 103
- soft issues. See soft factors
- software
 - development lifecycle. See SDLC
 - failing due to sociological aspects, 9
 - incidents, 337, 339, 340
 - maintenance costs, 12
 - measurement. See measurements, of software
 - modeling, issues beyond, 80
 - modeling spaces, 29
 - nature of, 8–9
 - quality control. See testing
 - quality judged only by interface, 9
 - size, measurement of, 283–284
- Software Engineering Institute, 138, 139
- software engineering process. See also software process
 - buying off-the-shelf, 237–238
 - creating, 237–238
 - described, 237–241
 - and process engineer, 263
- software process. See also quality software process; software engineering process
 - deployment, 249–252
 - development, 165
 - distinct from quality software process, 162–163
 - enacting, 253–256
 - in large projects, 68
 - maturity. See process maturity
 - as part of quality software process, 162
 - process-component. See process component, for individual components
 - quality of, 19
 - and the quality software process, 22–23
- software quality
 - assuring, 10–11
 - defining, 4–7
 - elusiveness of, 4

- software quality (cont.)
 - nature of software, 8–9
 - and objective effort, 7–8
- solution space. See also model of the solution space; team
 - organization, roles in solution space
 - activities, 32
 - defined, 31–32
 - management activities, 31
 - organizing the roles, 89, 90
- specification, and UML, 40–41
- spiral-based SDLC, 241–242
- sponsor
 - budget responsibility, 97
 - impact on project success, 97
 - and modeling, 28
 - role in business evaluation, 166
 - role in prototyping, 198
 - role on team, 97
 - and testing results, 341
 - and training in IIP approach, 252
- staff, and reusability, 111–112
- staff, and roles. See project organizational plan
- staff experience, 103, 319
- standards
 - application, 54, 133–136
 - database, 135
 - as deliverable, 138, 221
 - deployment of, 137–138
 - industrial, 137
 - length of, 135, 137
 - levels, 134
 - modeling, 133–134
 - not perfect, but followed, 137
 - organizational, 136–137
 - process, 134–135
 - programming language. See programming language, standards
 - project, 136
 - purpose of, 137
 - quality, 135–136
 - quality aspects, 133
 - and reuse, 53–54
- steering committee
 - impact on quality, 96
 - membership, 96
 - project manager, 96
 - quality manager, 97
 - role in business evaluation, 166
 - role on team, 96
 - and testing results, 341
- strategy, testing. See testing, planning
- stress testing. See performance testing
- structuring time, 117
- sufficiency, 51, 143
- Swiss army knife, 119
- synchronous teams, 106–107, 116
- syntax, 44–46
- system architect
 - influence on reuse, 94
 - and quality topics, xxviii–xxix
 - role in
 - enterprise architecture, 205
 - package evaluation, 94
 - persistence design, 190
 - reuse, 218
 - system architecture, 208
 - role, on team, 94
- system architecture
 - as deliverable, 206, 209
- system architecture process-component. See process-component for, system architecture
- system design process-component. See process-component for, system design
- system designer
 - desired experience, 90
 - as interface designer, 91
 - and quality topics, xxviii–xxix
 - role in
 - implementation, 192
 - reuse, 218
 - system architecture, 208
 - system design, 186
 - role, on team, 90–91
- system functionality, 316 system operation, 317 system test, 316

T

TA. See transactional analysis

Tao, 5

tape recording. of interviews, 130 task element in a process, 159. See also activities and tasks task plan. See project task plan team organization flattening, 109–111

importance of, 83–84

and reusability, 111

roles, common, 95–97

roles in background space, 95 problem space, 85–89

solution space, 91–93

roles in background space, 94 roles on quality team, 97–100 teams

avoiding mediocrity, 109 best-fit approach to creation, 107

creating, 107–109

models, 106–107

technological aspects of baking example, 20

measuring, 269

of a process, 152, 153

telecommuting, 105–106

telephone, 104, 130

test cases

defined, 328

as deliverable, 228

description, 328

designing, 328–329

format and content, 329–330

in Lucky Insurance project, 330–333

modifying, 334

verifying, 334

test data

augmented by previous results, 335

creating, 312

as deliverable, 228

risks of unavailability, 320 test design

as deliverable, 227

description, 325

different from test plan, 342

format and content, 327–328

sources of, 325–327

test harness. See test script test manager, testing role, 321

test plan

as deliverable, 221, 227

described, 145–146

different from test design, 342

in planning process, 319 and project plan, 145

reusability aspects, 324 test scripts, 314, 316 test suites, execution of, 336–337

tester

and quality topics, xxviii–xxix role in quality control, 227

role on team, 93, 100

testing role, 321

testing

analyzing risks, 319–321

approaches boundary value, 307, 313

cyclic, 323

horizontal testing, 307, 311

introduced, 306–307

manual testing, 306, 309–310

need for, 342

on non-executables, 308

partitioning, 307, 312–313

slicing, 307, 311 visibility, 307

architecture

acceptance test, 316–317

component test, 315–316

described, 313–314

operational testing, 317

performance testing, 318

regression testing, 317

scalability testing, 318

security testing, 318

system testing, 316

unit testing, 314–315

- testing (cont.)
 - automated testing, 306
 - in context, 304–306
 - cycles, 323–324
 - database. See database, for test results
 - described, 303
 - in development environment, 322
 - environment
 - common requirements, 322
 - creating, 322
 - as deliverable, 228
 - physical, 320
 - execution
 - acceptance criteria, 335–336
 - analyzing results, 338–340
 - incident reports, 337
 - preparation, 334–335
 - recording test results, 338
 - reporting, 341
 - software incidents, 337–338
 - horizontal, 311
 - incidents, defined, 337
 - introduction, 304–306
 - limiting scope, 306
 - metrics, 287
 - organization of, 326
 - planning, 318–324
 - resources for, 321
 - results. See also software, incidents
 - categories, 337
 - as deliverable, 229
 - importance of saving, 316
 - recording and analyzing, 337–341
 - reporting, 341
 - reusability in, 324
 - risks, 319–321
 - schedules, 322–323
 - scope of, 319–321
 - as software quality control, 304–306
 - status of, 341
 - strategy. See testing, planning
 - test cases. See test cases
 - test design. See test design
 - test execution, 334–337
 - test plan. See test plan
 - test planning
 - analyzing risks, 319–321
 - described, 318–319
 - development environment, 322
 - reusability, 324
 - test cycles, 323–324
 - test environment, 321, 322
 - test plan, 319
 - test resources, 321
 - test schedules, 322–323
 - theory and practice of, 303
 - time estimates, 322–323
 - timelines, 323
 - tools, 310
 - unit, 314–315
 - vertical, 311
 - when to start, 323
 - when to stop, 323, 338, 342
- Thomas, D., 285
- time
 - nonlinear, 12, 102, 281–282
 - as quality pressure, 12
- TOOLS 2000, 28
- training
 - materials, as deliverable, 216
 - and mentoring, 252
 - on object-oriented concepts, and testing risks, 319–320
- training manager, role in training, 215
- training plan, as deliverable, 216
- training process-component. See process-component for, training
- transactional analysis
 - games in a project, 117–118, 131
 - history of, 113–114
 - life positions, 116–117
 - managing multiple teams, 113
 - Parent, Adult, and Child ego states, 114–115
 - in software projects, 113–114
 - time and effort, 147
- triangle, quality context, 15
- Trueblood, Elton, 267

U

UML

- advantages, 34
 - artifacts, measurement of, 286–287
 - common misunderstandings, 34
 - and communication, 34
 - diagrams
 - measurement of, 286–287
 - and modeling spaces, 42–44
 - in practice, 43
 - and respective models, 44
 - and documentation quality, 42
 - history of, 34–36
 - metamodels, 36–38, 156
 - models, measurement of, 286–287
 - and quality
 - of construction, 41
 - of documentation, 42
 - and processes, 36
 - of specification, 40–41
 - of visualization, 39–40
 - separating from the process, 251
 - skills, need in testing, 320
 - in teaching object-orientation, 62–63
 - as a visual modeling language, 40
- UML 2001, xxix
- UML-based projects. See also projects
- size, 63–69
 - types
 - data warehouse/conversion, 62
 - development, 58
 - educational, 62–63
 - integration (with legacy), 58–60
 - outsourcing, 61–62
 - package implementation, 60–61
 - typical, 56–58
- unit test, 314–315
- unplanned, planning for, 283
- upgrade/release strategy, as
 - deliverable, 202
- usability
 - defined, 54
 - and domain expert, 89
 - great law of, 54–55
 - inspections, 124–125
 - lesser law of, 55
 - principles of, 55
 - problem space prototype, 89
 - studies, 73
 - of systems, and user input, 73
 - testing, 342

use cases
 - diagrams, measurement of, 286
 - documentation, 308
 - testing vs. class testing, 327

Use It or Lose It game, 119 user

 - in acceptance testing, 316
 - communication abilities, 86–87
 - and core requirements, 86
 - as distinct from end user, 87
 - importance to quality, 100
 - and model semantics, 48
 - in reviews, 126
 - role, as acceptance tester, 87
 - role in
 - deployment, 212
 - interface modeling, 182
 - project management, 170
 - prototyping, 198
 - providing quality, 86
 - quality control, 227
 - quality management, 220
 - training, 215
 - role, on team, 86, 100
 - training in IIP approach, 252
 - UML-literacy, 87 user domain, acceptance test, 316 user, end. See end user user interface modeler, role in interface modeling, 182 user representative. See user

utopian teams. See synchronous teams version control plan, as deliverable, 203

V

vertical testing, 307, 311

videos, as communication mechanism, 105 visibility testing approach, 307 visual models, 40

visualization, and UML, 39–40 volume testing. See performance testing

W

walkthroughs
 described, 123–124
 of quality models, 47
 use of checklists, 123–124
 in white box testing, 308 wall of project area, as communication mechanism, 105 waterfall-based SDLC, 241 website, as communication mechanism, 104 weighting factors, 278, 285–286 “what” of a process. See technological aspects white box testing, 306, 308–309
white cloud, 71
whiteboard, use in workshops, 131
“who” of a process. See sociological aspects
WIPRO, 141

Wohlin, C., 268 work ethics, and telecommuting, 106 workshops
 consolidation at end, 133 controlling conversations, 132
 described, 131–133
 documentation of results, 133 equipment, 131 facilitator, 131 planning for, 131 play acting, 132 on quality topics, xxx for reviews, 125 role in inspections, 124
 as source of gaming, 131 technical vs. facilitator skills, 131 value of confusion in, 132

X

XP, as off-the-shelf software, 23

Y

Y2K cleanup, 42, 59
Yourdon, Ed, 235