

1.

JScript is used to retrieve phone numbers from the browser's cookie database.

2.

Phone numbers are passed from JScript to the FlashTones movie as query string parameters when the movie loads.

3.

Phone numbers become available as ActionScript variables and are used throughout the Flash movie.

4.

When the user wishes to save a phone number, data is passed from Flash to JScript.

5.

JScript is used to write the phone numbers to the browser's cookie database.

